

Degree - Heat

A COLLEGE STUDENT is getting ready for the day. The news is playing in the background and the anchor says that today is the hottest day on record. A small amount of water begins to drip from under his arm, he looks through his cabinets and drawers.

When he looks back up there's a LITTLE DUTCH BOY in the mirror behind him. The lights flicker and now the little dutch boy is right behind him. A tiny, chubby little finger enters the man's armpit from behind, stopping the leak.

We do a back and forth of the two just staring at each other. The dutch boy who holds up a set of keys and nods. The man pauses then nods back.

CUT TO:

Man and L.D.B. are on a moped driving down a road in the heat.
